

RED, WHITE AND BLUE MAKES INDEPENDENCE SQUARE GAY FOR '4TH'

Big Stands Built for Seating Guests in National Celebration at Country Birthplace—Bell to Be on Platform.

Immense stands facing the old State House in Independence Square, decorated with national and city colors, are ready today for the honored guests and organizations invited to attend the national Fourth of July celebration.

Institutions and business houses of the city started today to observe the request of the National Fourth of July Committee that all residents of the city decorate their homes, business places, etc., with the colors of the celebration.

NEIGHBORHOOD CELEBRATIONS TO PROVIDE "SAFETY FIRST"

"Safety first" is to be the slogan of Independence Day. Neighborhood celebrations are planned for the patriotic holiday by 50 or more sectional committees under the supervision of the executive committee of the Citizens' Reconstructed Fourth Association.

Programs which promise fun as varied as could be pictured in the wildest flights of childish imagination are prepared for each day of safety and sane observance to overshadow anything that has heretofore been undertaken.

Fireworks exacted a heavy toll in the city and suburbs last Independence Day. Four lives were sacrificed and 236 injuries were sustained during the celebration of the nation's birth, according to figures secured from the city hospitals and compiled by Dr. Samuel Wolf, chairman of the Accident Committee of the Citizens' Reconstructed Fourth Association.

"Burns of the face and hands are the most common among the cases brought to the hospitals," said Dr. John Livingston, in charge of the minor accident ward of Jefferson Hospital today. Fire crackers exploding in the hands, sky rockets held through ignorance of directions, pin wheels and Roman candles exploded, and, unexpectedly, seem to be the most frequent causes of injuries.

"In every Fourth of July injury there is the possibility of infection of the tetanus, owing to the gunpowder and its being imbedded in the wound with the wadding. There has been a wonderful decrease in the death rate from tetanus since the universal use of the antitoxin, but the fact must not be overlooked that it has come hand in hand with a more safe and sane observance of the day."

"Fourth of July tetanus has virtually disappeared," said Dr. J. Chalmers De Costa, professor of surgery at Jefferson Medical College. "The administration of tetanus antitoxin treatment has reduced the number of tetanus cases from 46 in 1900 to seven cases in 1912."

"Fine particles of gunpowder are often blown into the eyes," said Dr. E. A. Humphrey, instructor in ophthalmology at the University of Pennsylvania and visiting oculist for several city hospitals. "They are exceedingly difficult to remove, often causing serious injury on account of infection after attempts to remove them. Frequently they penetrate the eyeball, causing injury to the delicate structures, such as crystalline lens, thus producing cataract. Where an explosion is from a high explosive and near to the eye the eyeball is at times completely shattered and must be removed. This is frequently known to happen in examining an unexploded piece of fireworks, such as a mortar pot, the result being not only the destruction of the eye but considerable destruction of the bony orbits."

"Pieces of metal are often blown into the eye by explosion of toy pistols, also bits of the copper from cartridge shells. In the latter case the injury is usually fatal to the eye because the copper cannot be removed by the method usually employed, namely, the magnet."

BERGDOLL WINS BIG ESTATE

Motor Speeder Gets $825,000 Despite Opposition of Brother. An estate valued at $825,000 was yesterday awarded to Grover C. Bergdoll, aviator and automobile racer, in an adjudication filed in the Orphans' Court by Judge Balliett, despite proceedings recently instituted by his brother to have the adjudged income and income of managing his estate. Young Bergdoll's holdings have been in charge of a guardian during his minority.

Two claims held by lawyers, amounting to $300 each, for attending the aged man on charges of executing his will with his wife and with assault and battery, were allowed by Judge Balliett.

Galvanized Boat Pumps

Made by L. D. BERGER, 78, 24 St. Phone Main 4000

ROXBOROUGH'S 4TH STOLEN

Eleven Lads Charged With Making Borrowed Eagle Scream.

Eleven boys were arrested today and charged with stealing and setting off last night the fireworks intended for the Roxborough celebration on July 8. The neighborhoods at Reister and Cresson streets and at Cotton and Cresson streets, in Manayunk, were started by explosions late last night. The boys had stolen $30 worth of large bombs from the home of C. A. Rudolph, on the west bank of the Schuylkill, opposite Manayunk. Rudolph had manufactured them for the Roxborough celebration. Each bomb was about a foot and a half in length, and was intended to be exploded in the air. The boys, however, exploded them on the ground.

William Schaff, 10 years old, of 2322 Arlington street, may lose the sight of his left eye as a result of being struck by a half ball driven by Roy Ogden, 13 years old, of 2228 Norris street. Schaff was sitting on a bench in Fairmount Park, near 33d street, when he was hit by the ball, which Ogden was knocking about with a stick. The injured child was taken to the Mary J. Drexel Home for treatment.

A young woman, said by the police to be an inmate of "The Arsenal," a ten-dollar resort, was held for trial today when her father and brother appeared and requested that she be committed to an incorrigible. She is Mrs. Stella Martin. She lives with her father, Henry S. Burkhardt, at 469 North 29th street.

Maurice Lieberman, 21 years old, of 1833 Montgomery avenue, was held for trial today on a charge of assault and battery on Francis Daley, of 1533 Lambert street, and Owen Horan, of 1509 Lambert street, both 12 years old. The police said he struck the boys with his fist because he thought they were calling him names.

Collecting a debt with a loaded gun while "loaded" with liquor is not legal. Magistrate Hagerty told John Napa, of Ardmore, today, in sentencing him to 30 days in the county prison. A revolver and a razor were found on his person last year after he had threatened to shoot a man, who, he said, owed him money.

An 18-year-old boy, accused of attacking a 14-year-old girl, was held for further hearing today. He is Tony Picarelli, of 3100 Crocker street. According to testimony, the youth went to the home of the girl, Nellie Sacorzi, 2029 West Clearfield street, Tuesday, and entered her room by climbing to the roof of the building and lowering himself to a balcony outside her window. Her screams aroused the family and her assailant fled.

Albert Mooney, of 618 North Mays street, was held without bail by the coroner today to await the action of the Grand Jury as to his responsibility for the death of Fenton B. Hancock, of 7105 Greenwood avenue, when a car Mooney was driving hit a telegraph pole at 6th street and Woodland avenues, June 4th. Hancock was in the car with Mooney.

SUFFRAGISTS AND FOES DIFFER AS TO 'DEFEAT'

Take Different Views as to Meaning of Setback Suffered by Issue in Wisconsin.

A wide difference of opinion prevailed in the suffrage and anti-suffrage camps in this city today regarding the probable effect of the defeat of the woman suffrage issue in the Wisconsin Legislature yesterday. On the "ant" side, the ultimate defeat everywhere of the votes for women issue is foreseen, while on the suffrage side victory is predicted despite the apparent defeat. For, say the suffragists, "we must win the setback is temporary."

Mrs. George Pierce, leader of the Woman Suffrage Party in this city, said she was not discouraged. "Woman suffrage will eventually win; there can be no doubt of that," she said. "There are many temporary setbacks, obstacles that can and will be overcome. I am certain prejudice has played a large part in the defeat, if defeat it can be called, and that this has been the outgrowth of ignorance and selfish interest. There is a certain element that is opposed to woman's suffrage because it knows that when women get the ballot many of its selfish interests will be overthrown and general betterment will result."

The identification was purely accidental, through the description furnished by a woman undertaker for a permit to bury an unidentified woman, thought to be "Martha Conway," in Potter's Field. It tallied with the description of Mrs. Sinclair, who had disappeared June 24 from the family cottage at Ventnor.

ARCHBISHOP QUIGLEY NEARS DEATH; PRAY FOR ME, HE ASKS

Physician Gives Up Hope for Recovery of Prelate. ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 2.—Archbishop Quigley's death is expected momentarily. Doctor Les Berger issued a bulletin to this effect, following an earlier report today that the prelate's condition had improved. The Archbishop's heart action is now weaker and his temperature is higher.

When asked whether anything could be done for him, he answered: "Just pray for me."

At his request all visitors have been excluded from the bedside and the only ones allowed to see the dying man are his physicians and nurses.

Prohibition Blamed for High Meat

NEW YORK, July 2.—According to the packers' agents, the prohibition wave throughout the country has hurt the distilleries to such an extent that there is not enough whisky refuse grain at the distilleries to fatten the usual number of cattle in the Middle West. This is one reason, they say, why beef is scarcer and higher. The other reason, they add, is the demand by the armies in Europe, the Allies troops alone requiring 4000 steers a day.

"Trousers a Specialty" is more than a catch phrase with us. Trousers fit is our pride. Test us on Flannel Trousers at $6.50. Regular 18 value—fit guaranteed—yet made at the price of ready-made white knickerbockers, as a "get-acquainted" special offer.

W. S. JONES, Inc. Custom Tailoring Only, 1116 Walnut Street. Reduction on Business Buildings, 10-12-16-20

GIRL BOMB-DROPPER IN PLANE TO ATTACK FORT IN SHAM FIGHT

Nurse, Who Attended Baronet von Figgelmessy, Veteran Aviator, When He Deliberately Injured Himself to Spare Spectators, to Fly With Him at Point Breeze.

How a woman acts under fire in aerial warfare will be shown at Point Breeze Park tomorrow and Monday afternoons, when Miss Lucy V. Thompson, in the military aeroplane of Lieutenant Baronet von Figgelmessy, will take part in air raids and drop "bombs" on a fort, which will answer the fire with anti-aircraft "guns."

It was Miss Thompson who nursed the Baronet back to health in the Lewistown, Pa., hospital after an unusual operation had been performed by Dr. John Russell Hunter, of the hospital staff. The Baronet's fractured leg was saved by screwing a steel plate, 5 inches long and a quarter of an inch wide, to the bone above the knee. The leg was fractured in a flight accident at the Port Royal, Pa., fair grounds, and the task of nursing the injured aeronaut fell to Miss Thompson, a nurse in the hospital.

None the worse for his "armor-plate" leg, Baronet von Figgelmessy will take Miss Thompson in his 100-horsepower Curtiss army aeroplane when it gives exhibitions of scouting, bomb-dropping and fighting in air battle. The demonstration will take place at 2 o'clock in the Point Breeze Motordrome, and the effect of aerial warfare will be heightened by a sham battle between companies of the 2d Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, which will camp on the grounds.

The Baronet and his manager, Harvey Wilbur Keys, are veteran aviators. The Baronet's license No. 235, is one of the oldest in America. Accidents have thinned the ranks of the older aeronauts. The accident that temporarily crippled the Baronet at Port Royal—and, incidentally, led to the meeting with his feminine flight companion—was a spectacular one, being witnessed by about 500 persons. To avoid mowing down the close-packed throng that had crowded into the space he had intended using as a landing place, the Baronet steered his racer for a tree. Crashing through the tree, the machine righted itself and then went full tilt into a barbed-wire fence, crushing the daring aviator under the wreckage.

MRS. SINCLAIR'S BODY COMING HOME TODAY

Wife of Philadelphia Physician, Aphasia Victim, Died in Negro's House at Atlantic City.

The body of Mrs. John F. Sinclair, wife of a physician at 4103 Walnut street, who died in a dingy house in the negro belt of Atlantic City Wednesday, and by chance escaped being buried unidentified, will be brought to this city today. Her husband and relatives have taken charge of the body.

There will be no formal inquest, said Dr. Lewis R. Souder, coroner's physician, today, after a survey of all the unfortunate details of the case. He declared, however, that he will attempt to have a rigorous investigation made by the police, the organized charities and other agencies of conditions prevailing in the negro quarter.

"The squalor I found in the house where this unfortunate woman died is almost inconceivable," he said. "Had I not seen it I would not have believed there were such places in Atlantic City." All suspicion that Mrs. Sinclair met with foul play has been dispelled. The true story to the story told by Martha Horn, the negro woman who took the wanderer in and sheltered her in the squalid room at 4902 Arctic avenue, is that a female stranger was searching for his wife, a sufferer from aphasia. Mrs. Sinclair, who had disappeared the day before she applied, in a dazed way, for lodgings, was penniless, but had a large amount of jewelry on her person. None of this was missing except two pieces, which she had pawned to pay the negro woman for her lodging.

The woman and her husband gave up their bed for Mrs. Sinclair, sleeping on the floor, all in the same room. The autopsy, which was at first expected would reveal murder, showed that Mrs. Sinclair had died from alcoholism. All possible haste was made after the establishment of identity yesterday to probe the case to the bottom. The identification was purely accidental, through the description furnished by a woman undertaker for a permit to bury an unidentified woman, thought to be "Martha Conway," in Potter's Field. It tallied with the description of Mrs. Sinclair, who had disappeared June 24 from the family cottage at Ventnor.

TWO HURT BY AUTO ON FERRY

Chauffeur Loses Control of Machine as Boat Docks. Two persons, severely injured last night when a big touring car crashed through the gates of a ferryboat as it was landing at Camden, were said at the Cooper Hospital today to be much improved in condition. They will probably recover. They are Henry Moncries, 21 years old, 228 North Front street, Camden, a brigadier employed by the ferry company, and Mrs. George Tratter, 50 years old, 21 North 39th street, Camden, a passenger on the boat.

Moncries suffered internal injuries and his spine possibly was dislocated. Mrs. Tratter sustained a fracture of the skull and her ankle was injured. Five other persons were injured slightly. The machine was driven by Charles Nixon, said to be an inexperienced chauffeur, and in the car were John J. Mahoney and Thomas Black, of Atlantic City. Nixon lost control of the car, and it crashed through the ferryboat gates, scattering the crowd and the progress of the wild machine was stopped by the side of the pier Nixon disappeared.

PHILADELPHIA & READING RY.

$2.50 Gettysburg Niagara Falls $12 AND RETURN Fifteen Day Tour Sunday, July 4 Saturday, July 10 Leave Reading Terminal, 7 A. M. Leave Gettysburg 5 P. M. Stopping each way at Spring Garden St., Columbia Ave. and Huntingdon St.

$1 Excursions Atlantic City, Ocean City, EVERY DAY Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood, Cape May, DAY Leave Chestnut St. and South St. Ferries, 7:00 A. M. Additional Sundays—Wildwood & Schellenger's Landing, 8:10 A. M. Sundays and July 8—Atlantic City, 7:00 A. M. Monday July 5—Leave Atlantic City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood and Cape May, 9:00 P. M. Ocean City, 10:30 P. M. $1.00 EXCURSION TICKETS ACCEPTED ON THESE TRAINS

SUFFRAGIST CAME, SHE SAW—AND THEN FLED

Miss Estelle Russel Driven From Philly Ball Park by Attire (?) of Reindeer Killifer.

The other side of the G. N. P.—Great National Fraternalism—was demonstrated today at Philly Park, Broad and Huntingdon streets, to Miss Estelle Russel, widely known organizer for the Woman Suffrage party. Incidentally, Patrick Moran went on record as in favor of woman suffrage.

Miss Russel arrived at the pass gate, 18th and Huntingdon streets, at 10 o'clock. Her intention was to dazzle the ball players at morning practice into promising to vote for the cause. All this was to be preparatory to the great suffrage demonstration July 7, when the Phillies and New York will stage a double-header.

William Shettlesine, alias "Shetts," answered the timid knock of Miss Russel. "Yes'm," he said, politely. In language equally to the point, Miss Russel explained her object. "Shetts" gazed at her in horrified fascination for a full minute. Then, carefully blocking the door with his foot, he held up both hands, palms outward. The full text of his statement has not yet been given out, but it is understood to have been approximately this:

"I am exceedingly sorry, Miss Russel, that I cannot agree with your request for permission to interview the employees of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club while they are engaged in the customary forenoon practice. It grieves me deeply, but —"

Translated into baseball language, this means that "Shetts" probably said as follows: "Nothing doing." But Miss Russel, like all suffragists, is persistent. Being so, she persisted. Finally, "Shetts" reluctantly sidestepped and Miss Russel went through the runway under the stands and walked up into the grandstand just behind home plate. On the way she met Mr. Moran.

"BRANDY" IS GENUINE DOG, AND A GOOD ONE

He Wasn't Raised to Ride in Violet-colored Limousines. He Just Raised Himself.

Add all the things you ever heard about a dog together and multiply by 10. Then you may get an idea of the attainments of Brandy.

He is none of your fancy, slap-you-on-the-wrist, silk-hatted poodles. He wasn't raised around velvet rugs and marble halls, nor did he ever have a manicurist or massage artist to look after his appearance. As to food, he took what he could dig up—that is, until his present master, George Fisher, found him. He was a little fox terrier.

Brandy was down and out, sure enough. He had no prospects whatever and his straggly hair was only here and there. But Fisher, who lives at 1533 South 2d street, fed him well and soon brought him around.

Brandy soon proved that he was intelligent, grateful and decidedly practical. A fire started in the cellar of the Fisher home and when the dog saw the smoke he traced it to the cellar. There he jumped on the flames until they were extinguished. No lighted match can burn on the floor when Brandy is around. When he heard a member of the family play the piano he usually instinctively inclined and proved that he could sing bass as well as tenor. It is true that he strikes discords at times, but his voice is not unmusical.

Brandy is also an adept at acrobatics and can do a "back stand" or a "back flip" with ease. He seems to be gifted as a mind reader, for if anything is lost around the house, Brandy is told to find it. He always succeeds, searching for the missing article. He goes to sleep whenever he is told and awakens without an alarm clock.

PAPER COMPANIES MERGE

Wilkinson Brothers Taken Over by D. L. Ward Concern.

The Philadelphia business of Wilkinson Brothers & Co. has been taken over by the D. L. Ward paper concern and the two companies will be operated under one head in the building formerly occupied by the Jessup & Moore Paper Company at 28 South 8th street. The deal, which is one of the largest ever made in the paper business in this city, is said to have involved between $15,000 and $10,000. The officers of the D. L. Ward concern are: George W. Ward, president; W. W. Seary and E. T. Walters, vice presidents, and B. S. Alcorn, former manager of the Wilkinson Brothers' Philadelphia branch, treasurer.

Parry's

Hats exclusively since 1880. Parry's Straw Hats Reduced $1.00. Take with you a fresh and perfect Parry hat. Not a second or sale hat, but our reg. $2 and $2.50 quality. Wear a good hat is inseparable at this price.

$3 Hats, now $2. $1, $2 and $10 Panamas, now $5. 928 Chestnut St. Open Saturday Evenings.

PHILADELPHIA & READING RY.

$2.50 Gettysburg Niagara Falls $12 AND RETURN Fifteen Day Tour Sunday, July 4 Saturday, July 10 Leave Reading Terminal, 7 A. M. Leave Gettysburg 5 P. M. Stopping each way at Spring Garden St., Columbia Ave. and Huntingdon St.

$1 Excursions Atlantic City, Ocean City, EVERY DAY Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood, Cape May, DAY Leave Chestnut St. and South St. Ferries, 7:00 A. M. Additional Sundays—Wildwood & Schellenger's Landing, 8:10 A. M. Sundays and July 8—Atlantic City, 7:00 A. M. Monday July 5—Leave Atlantic City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood and Cape May, 9:00 P. M. Ocean City, 10:30 P. M. $1.00 EXCURSION TICKETS ACCEPTED ON THESE TRAINS

SUFFRAGIST CAME, SHE SAW—AND THEN FLED

Miss Estelle Russel Driven From Philly Ball Park by Attire (?) of Reindeer Killifer.

The other side of the G. N. P.—Great National Fraternalism—was demonstrated today at Philly Park, Broad and Huntingdon streets, to Miss Estelle Russel, widely known organizer for the Woman Suffrage party. Incidentally, Patrick Moran went on record as in favor of woman suffrage.

Miss Russel arrived at the pass gate, 18th and Huntingdon streets, at 10 o'clock. Her intention was to dazzle the ball players at morning practice into promising to vote for the cause. All this was to be preparatory to the great suffrage demonstration July 7, when the Phillies and New York will stage a double-header.

William Shettlesine, alias "Shetts," answered the timid knock of Miss Russel. "Yes'm," he said, politely. In language equally to the point, Miss Russel explained her object. "Shetts" gazed at her in horrified fascination for a full minute. Then, carefully blocking the door with his foot, he held up both hands, palms outward. The full text of his statement has not yet been given out, but it is understood to have been approximately this:

"I am exceedingly sorry, Miss Russel, that I cannot agree with your request for permission to interview the employees of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club while they are engaged in the customary forenoon practice. It grieves me deeply, but —"

Translated into baseball language, this means that "Shetts" probably said as follows: "Nothing doing." But Miss Russel, like all suffragists, is persistent. Being so, she persisted. Finally, "Shetts" reluctantly sidestepped and Miss Russel went through the runway under the stands and walked up into the grandstand just behind home plate. On the way she met Mr. Moran.

"BRANDY" IS GENUINE DOG, AND A GOOD ONE

He Wasn't Raised to Ride in Violet-colored Limousines. He Just Raised Himself.

Add all the things you ever heard about a dog together and multiply by 10. Then you may get an idea of the attainments of Brandy.

He is none of your fancy, slap-you-on-the-wrist, silk-hatted poodles. He wasn't raised around velvet rugs and marble halls, nor did he ever have a manicurist or massage artist to look after his appearance. As to food, he took what he could dig up—that is, until his present master, George Fisher, found him. He was a little fox terrier.

Brandy was down and out, sure enough. He had no prospects whatever and his straggly hair was only here and there. But Fisher, who lives at 1533 South 2d street, fed him well and soon brought him around.

Brandy soon proved that he was intelligent, grateful and decidedly practical. A fire started in the cellar of the Fisher home and when the dog saw the smoke he traced it to the cellar. There he jumped on the flames until they were extinguished. No lighted match can burn on the floor when Brandy is around. When he heard a member of the family play the piano he usually instinctively inclined and proved that he could sing bass as well as tenor. It is true that he strikes discords at times, but his voice is not unmusical.

Brandy is also an adept at acrobatics and can do a "back stand" or a "back flip" with ease. He seems to be gifted as a mind reader, for if anything is lost around the house, Brandy is told to find it. He always succeeds, searching for the missing article. He goes to sleep whenever he is told and awakens without an alarm clock.

PAPER COMPANIES MERGE

Wilkinson Brothers Taken Over by D. L. Ward Concern.

The Philadelphia business of Wilkinson Brothers & Co. has been taken over by the D. L. Ward paper concern and the two companies will be operated under one head in the building formerly occupied by the Jessup & Moore Paper Company at 28 South 8th street. The deal, which is one of the largest ever made in the paper business in this city, is said to have involved between $15,000 and $10,000. The officers of the D. L. Ward concern are: George W. Ward, president; W. W. Seary and E. T. Walters, vice presidents, and B. S. Alcorn, former manager of the Wilkinson Brothers' Philadelphia branch, treasurer.

Parry's

Hats exclusively since 1880. Parry's Straw Hats Reduced $1.00. Take with you a fresh and perfect Parry hat. Not a second or sale hat, but our reg. $2 and $2.50 quality. Wear a good hat is inseparable at this price.

$3 Hats, now $2. $1, $2 and $10 Panamas, now $5. 928 Chestnut St. Open Saturday Evenings.

PHILADELPHIA & READING RY.

$2.50 Gettysburg Niagara Falls $12 AND RETURN Fifteen Day Tour Sunday, July 4 Saturday, July 10 Leave Reading Terminal, 7 A. M. Leave Gettysburg 5 P. M. Stopping each way at Spring Garden St., Columbia Ave. and Huntingdon St.

$1 Excursions Atlantic City, Ocean City, EVERY DAY Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood, Cape May, DAY Leave Chestnut St. and South St. Ferries, 7:00 A. M. Additional Sundays—Wildwood & Schellenger's Landing, 8:10 A. M. Sundays and July 8—Atlantic City, 7:00 A. M. Monday July 5—Leave Atlantic City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood and Cape May, 9:00 P. M. Ocean City, 10:30 P. M. $1.00 EXCURSION TICKETS ACCEPTED ON THESE TRAINS

MEDIATOR'S JOB OFFERED

Place May Go to Champion of First Liability Bill.

HARRISBURG, July 2.—Patrick Gilday, of Morrisville Mines, has received an offer of the position of Chief of the Bureau of Mediation in the State Department of Labor and Industry from Commissioner John Price Jackson. Mr. Gilday, who has been for years prominent in the affairs of the United Mine Workers of America and was back of the first employers' liability act passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature some years ago, has been connected recently with the Conciliation Bureau at Washington. He served recently on the commission that helped to settle the Colorado mine strike.

Martindale candy specials for a safe & sane Fourth

Away from the old-time bang and roar and glare—out on the shady porch with a box of Martindale confections at hand. There we are—that's a safe and sane Fourth. All right to loud up a bit, just to let folks know we're still on earth—but after all—a quiet spot with a book and a box, but—Martindale's.

Jordan Almonds—plump, tasty almonds with a good sugaring over them—an exceptional quality to sell at 39c lb.

Zazas—a chocolate-covered vanilla cream with a cocoa cream centre. 32c lb.

Dipped Mallow Caramels—one of those soft luscious confections. Good marshmallow held in a film of rich caramel. 31c lb.

Assorted Chocolates—a delicious quality and a delightful variety of pieces. 29c lb.

Colonial Nut Caramels—A real Nation Birthday confection, made of the sort of good ingredients they used to use in Colonial times. 27c lb.

Assorted Fruit Tablets—true fruit flavors—a mighty fine candy for the Fourth. 21c lb.

Stick Candy—large sticks in large jars, 25c jar. Hard Pillows—a very attractive assortment as to coloring and flavors, 25c lb. jar. Our Special $1 Box containing 2 1/2 lbs. net of fine chocolates.

38c Special Chocolates and Bonbons—a quality that never varies. Mrs. Lee's Caramels, 40c lb. Pecunut, 5c pkg.

Cooling drinks for a hot Fourth. Cloverdale Ginger Ale, $1 a dozen bottles. Grape Smash, 10c, 25c, 50c bottle. Viv Grape Juice, 25c & 45c bot. Saegertown Ginger Ale, $1.75 dozen quart bottles. Rose's Lime Juice, 20c & 45c bottle.

Cantrell & Cochran's Imported Ginger Ale, $1.50 doz. pt. bottles. Hires Root Beer, $1.10 doz. Schweppes Sarsaparilla, $1.60 doz.

Raspberry Vinegar, 65c bottle. Cloverdale Mineral Water, $3.50 a case of doz. 1/2-gal. bots. Pastries for the Fourth in wide variety.

Store closed all day Monday. Thos. Martindale & Co. 10th & Market. Established in 1808. Bell Telephone—Fibert 2670, Fibert 2671. Keytone—Race 590, Race 591.

Autocars have standardized delivery service

CHASSIS PRICE $1650

Representative lumber and building materials companies in all sections of the country are adopting Autocar Motor Vehicles, not only because of the saving in time, but also because Autocars make long-haul business economical and give prompt, regular service at all times. C. B. Coles & Sons Co., Camden, N. J., whose car is shown above, decided on the Autocar to meet the demand "for quick work in hauling to the suburbs, which costs heavily by team, on account of the time consumed in making the long trips." Call at the Autocar Sales and Service Co., 23d and Market Sts., Philadelphia, or write for catalog and list of over 2600 concerns using Autocars in every line of business.

Perry's

Open All Day Tomorrow, Saturday, July 3. Perry's Summer Reduction Sale.

There are "sales" and "sales," but there's only One Perry Sale, and only One Sale all Season at Perry's. That's why so many men watch and wait for it—and they let us know we've started something when they read our announcement!

Get in on it today or tomorrow at these prices—$12 and $15 Suits, now $9.50, $10.50, $11.50. $20, $25, $30 Suits, now $15.50, $19, $23. $10 Palm Beach Suits, $7.50. $5 Outing trousers, $3.75. Closed all day Monday, July 5.

PERRY & CO.

"N. B. T." 16th & Chestnut Sts.

Are You Ready For Your Trip? Take HORLICK'S Malted Milk

with you when Yachting, Camping, Motoring, Fishing, or Golfing. A nutritious, satisfying Food-Drink ready in a moment. A good lunch when tired or run down. Simply dissolve in water, hot or cold. A fine night's rest is assured if you take a cupful hot before retiring. Our Lunch Tablets are the acme of convenient nourishment. Dissolve a few in the mouth when fatigued or hungry. Sample free, HORLICK'S, Racine, Wis. No Substitute is "Just as Good" as HORLICK'S, the Original.

Choose your laundry as you would your garment maker. The one makes clothes to wear; the other should make them to last. Our employees are careful, skilled operators. Neptune Laundry 1501 Columbia Ave. Why not have the best?

Advertisement for C. B. Coles & Sons Co. Autocars, featuring a large image of an Autocar motor vehicle and text describing standardized delivery service, chassis price of $1650, and the company's commitment to prompt service in all sections of the country.